9.) The Augusts Age makes a faint effort to get rid of the Circular of the Pay Master General, wherein he admits that the bills of the Upited States Pank -arc as " acceptible as specie," and " uch more convenient." The editor studiously avoids publishing there important adheisting for the very simple reason that they give the fire the machen of that that and other hisding process have rained against the Panh, ... ch ve ite being incolvent, unable to pay i's debts, and unworthy of confidence.

The a vertion of the Age, that the Bank is in de bi to the Government, is untrue. The editor, perrot-like, only repeats the cry of the Globe. which paper, a few days since, called the United Set s Rank the " Deblor Rank," and to which the Courier and Enquirer replied in a word as follows: ----

The impudence of this epithet would excite laughter, if its falsehood did not rather excite indigention. There is nothing like putting on a good face. "The great ' Debtor Bank' stand: in the position as a lender of money to the Treasury by antigipating the payment of its bonds, to relieve the exigencies of a Bankrupt Governant! This is the true state of the case. The Government in effect borrows money of the is a seriving an " indulgence" from the hands of the Government! The Hank lends this money. to the Government at different points, in a curremey amore acceptable and intore convenient than spreie and this is represented by the Globe as 'indulgence' and ! forbearance" to the

The editor of the Age concento the conclusion from a gern at of the Circular, that all connection between the Government and the Bank je in a fair way to be etcard !! A very wire conclosium teals !

The New York Courier a-ya:

The one man power is the despotic power all Governments. And what is despotism but possession of all the Pexes-open the People, and the command of the Army and Navy, to overawe disobedience. If Mr Nan Buren can re move all his Sub Treasurers at his will and pleasure, and they have the outlody and controll of the the $40,000,000 of public Revenue, what is this but vesting Mr. Van Buien with the power of these roker wiserous; and what is such-

The fact is, with the bastard Democracy of Van Buren & Co. one an is every thing, and the mass is nothing. Power is the idol of such a bastard Democracy; and if in America, as,in Egypt, this nower was thought to be in cats and dogs, the Office Holding Democracy would worship them. What there is of honesty and principle in this Democracy, which is so tickled by the sound, us not to feel the seres, is be fooler cy supports HIM, out whigging, as he does even the Whigs out banking even the Bankites out speculating even the epeculators-out_manapolilobbiers by profession, and yet he is an antibank man-f a leard money man !! a Constituti-Law, and the Murtgage Law, and all to boot !!
